

MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT

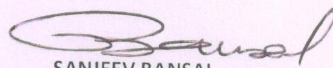

1. No candidate shall indulge in any activity which may aggravate existing difference or create communal hatred or cause tension between different castes and communities, religious or linguistic.
2. There shall be no appeal to caste or communal feelings for securing votes, Places of worship shall not be used as forum for election propaganda.
3. Candidates may install their simple polling camps 100 metres away from polling station without any posters, flags, symbols or any other propaganda material. They can only display the name of the candidate on their camps. Unnecessary crowd not to be collected near the camps or polling booths so as to avoid confrontation and tension among workers and sympathizers. Canvassing inside or within 100 metres area of the polling station is strictly prohibited. No drinks, refreshment, lunch etc. will be served to the voters by the candidates. Conveyance is also not allowed to be provided by candidates to the voters. It may result serious action against the candidates.
4. Candidates or their supporters are not allowed to use any hoardings, banners, posters and organize processions, meetings or demonstrations etc. during the election process. Use of loud speakers strictly prohibited. They can issue their bio data and manifesto for improvement of Club facilities for the members of the Club. Candidates are allowed to spend up to Rs 25000/- for their election propaganda.
5. Unparliamentarily language, insulting remarks or allegation used against any candidate or club office bearers is strictly prohibited and such kind of practice by any candidate or his supporter may disqualify such candidate by the election officers, any statement which may hurt the feeling of any candidate are not allowed to be published in the newspapers etc.
6. No bags, briefcase, arms and mobile phones etc. will be allowed inside the polling station on the days of polling and counting.
7. Eligible members only will be allowed to enter the polling booth to cast their votes only, No one without the valid pass from the Election Officer shall enter the polling booth.
8. Any member found indulged in malpractice and bogus voting for any other member, he may loose his membership of the Club. Any candidate or his authorized representative may challenge the identity of the person to be a particular voter by first depositing the sum of Rs. 100/- in cash with the Election Officer for each such challenge. Any outsider, if caught, for bogus voting and found involved in any act disturbing the election process, he will be handed over to the Police for Legal action.
9. Candidate can supply identity slips to voters on plain (white) paper which shall not contain any symbol or name of the candidate etc.
10. Issue of advertisement at the cost of Club in the newspaper and other media during the election period for coverage of political news and publicity regarding achievements with a view for furthering their own prospects shall be scrupulously avoided.
11. Managing Committee/Office bearers of the Club are not allowed to sanction any grants/payments out of discretionary funds of the club from the date of the election notification, Payments for purpose of emergent needs or for purpose of smooth functioning of the club during the election process will be permitted subject to the prior approval of the election committee.
12. The office bearers and members of the existing Managing Committee shall ensure that they shall not combine their official function with electioneering work and shall not also make use of official machinery or personnel during the electioneering work.
13. Space covered or open in the Club premises shall not be allowed to be utilized for election meetings/propaganda in any manner by any candidate.
14. Election result will be announced after completion of counting and thereafter all election records will be sealed in a box after the election result are declared and sealed box will be handed over to the Club Officials under signature and receipts of the same to keep the box in safe custody.
15. After commencement of polling, if any unwanted situation or disturbance is created due to any law and order problem, the election may be suspended, postponed or even cancelled by the Election Officer.

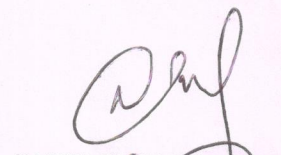

All the members are requested to freely take part in the election & follow the rules, regulations, Election code of conduct, to ensure free, fair, peaceful friendly and safe elections.

COVID PROTOCOL / GOVT. GUIDELINES MUST BE STRICTLY FOLLOWD AT ALL TIMES

Thanking You,

PARDEEP ANAND
Election Officer

SANJEEV BANSAL
Member Election Comm.

NARESH CHANDER SHARMA
Member Election Comm.